5TH ANNUAL PEEPS DIORAMA CONTEST!

Design and build a Peeps diorama of your favorite book, poem, or nursery rhyme! You may write an original poem if you like and include the text.

Entries will be accepted March 1—April 1

How it works:

- ♦ One entry per person
- ♦ You must use a shoebox or boot box—nothing larger
- ♦ You can use other materials besides a Peeps, but there must be at least two (2) Peeps in your diorama
- ♦ There are three age categories: children 12 and under, teens, and adults
- ♦ The title of the book, poem or nursery rhyme you are portraying needs to show in your diorama
- ♦ Write your name, age and contact number on the bottom

Visitors to the library will vote for their favorite, by age category, and the diorama that receives the most votes, wins! Voting will take place the week of April 3-7.

Participating libraries:

Morro Bay, Cambria, Arroyo Grande, Atascadero

2016 PRINTZ AWARD WINNER

The Michael L. Printz Award honors a book that exemplifies literary excellence in young adult literature. It is named for a Topeka, Kansas school librarian who was a long-time active member of the Young Adult Library Services Association. The award is sponsored by Booklist, a publication of the American Library Association.

March: Book Three by John Lewis, Andrew Aydin, and Nate Powell

This graphic novel is the conclusion of the March trilogy, a gripping autobiographical account of Congressman John Lewis's experiences during the Civil Rights Movement. It follows Lewis's involvement with the Mississippi Freedom Summer and the March on Selma, concluding with a call to action for today's youth.

HONOR BOOKS:

Asking For It
by Louise O'Neill

The Passion of Dolssa
by Julie Berry

Scythe
By Neal Shusterman

The Sun is Also a Star
by Nicola Yoon
